Mr. Eakes,

I am in receipt of an email sent to our office dated October 24, 2025. I also understand that a letter was sent to Philadelphia Police Department as well, which I am including in this response though it was not delivered pursuant to the policy put in place by the Board of Aldermen. As a Public Entity, we do not waive costs associated with the compiling, reviewing, copying or otherwise preparing any documentation for review as public funds are being expended in accomplishing those tasks. After speaking with the necessary department heads regarding the estimate of time needed for the lowest paid employee capable of processing and reviewing your request(s), we estimate an approximate cost of $1,675.00 plus any additional fees pertaining to copying/scanning documents may apply pursuant to the Public Records Policy, which I have attached to this letter. Please be advised that this is an estimate only, actual costs may differ from the amount listed herein. Further, we estimate the time involved in compiling, reviewing and preparing the materials pursuant to your request to be approximately ten (10) business days. Please be advised that materials will not be dispatched prior to Rule 8(4) of the Public Records Policy. As such, please advise in writing if you wish for us to begin to process your request. As always we can be reached at 601-656-3612 option 1.

Sincerely,

Nikki Walton, City Clerk
